FISHER'S FUN FESTIVAL IS A SCREAM AT THE B. W.

Fisher's Fun Festival at The Booker Washington Theatre this week is all that is name implies. The audience is kept laughing from a novel song and dance opening by the company to a spirited dance finale. The comedy runs riot throughout the production. The first number is by a violinist, who has a rapid fire talk and the "blues." A "Sociable Game of Poker" follows in which bricks, axes and pistols are used to settle a dispute over five aces. His doings keep the people screaming. The victims have to leave town, running, and this gives a reason for meeting an Indian where more trouble is had over "Firewater."

A couple of recitations on "Boosevelt" and "Equal Rights" follow. The closing piece is the "Jelly Roll Hot" where there are hilarious dialogues. The show is pleasing the crowds and will close Sunday night.

SANDY BURNS AND ALL STAR COMPANY NEXT WEEK

Sandy Burns and his All Star Company of performers will open at The Booker Washington Theatre Monday night. Burns, known as "P. P. Ashes" is one of the funniest comedians on the stage and his company this season consists of a real beauty chorus and half dozen real strong men. Sweetie May, Georgia Davis, Bonnie Bell Drew, Terry Williams, Sam Russell, Fred Hart, Terry Williams, George Davis in the company and the show of ferred is said to be the biggest entertainment on the circuit.

OPENING OF JAZZLAND GARDEN DELAYED BY THE RAIN

The unusual cold weather and frequent rains have delayed the beautifying and remodeling of Jazzland Summer Garden at 2118-18 Market. The management announces that an early opening can be expected.

MANHATTAN SUMMER GARDEN WILL OPEN MAY 17

The Grand Opening of The Manhattan Garden, at Newstead and Finney avenues, will be Tuesday, May 17. The Garden has been toned up for the summer season. Among the special features will be high class entertainment, with Louis Pease and Neville Carr in all the latest songs; and George Jackson's Harmony Kings. Everything good to eat will be served, including Frog Legs and Chicken. Dancing will be the main feature. Mr. Louwse announced that he has engaged Albert Cottrell as manager of the Garden. Dancing at The Manhattan is now free. The Admission is 11 cents.

NEW AIRDOME TO OPEN

It has been announced that the new AirDome at Finney and Poydleton will open Saturday, May 10. Messrs. G. W. Gellan and William Young are the promoters.

WILL BREAK GROUND FOR ASSEMBLY HALL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Sunday afternoon the Assembly Hall Theatre will have a monster parade and ground breaking ceremony. The parade starts at 1:30 p. m. and will start at the corner of E. 4th and Market and proceed over to E. 14th and Market and surrounding neighborhood, then east to the premises, 2118 Market at 3 p. m. A band will head the parade and the Missouri Republican League club and any other organizations participating in a jubilation on the ground. Arrangements for platforms for public speakers and decorations have been made. His honor Mayor Kiel will turn the first spadeful of earth and deliver the principal address. Other speakers will be: W. H. Moore, member of the Legislature; William Matthews, Hon. Robert Hall, Judge of the Court of Appeals; Drs. Christian and Caston and others will be on the platform and deliver addresses. It is anticipated that this will be the greatest event in the history of St. Louis for the moral and educational uplift of our colored citizens. Ground breaking for this new building is a case of ultimate reward for perseverance, patience and perseverance to our own Richard D. Barrett, who has wrestled with this proposition for several years, and finally after storming the weather and unfavorable conditions, has emerged from a seeming somnambulistic state with a crown of success.

AT THE MOVIES

"The Great Redeemer," "A Voice in the Dark" and "The Greatest Love" Star Features

Maurice Tourneur's master production "The Great Redeemer" will be shown at The Star Theatre this Saturday. It is a story of a "bad lands" who works out his generation within prison walls. On Sunday, the feature will be "A Voice in the Dark." It is one of the most remarkable mystery stories ever written for the screen. Four innocent persons are under suspicion, with the facts seeming to point to each as strongly as the others. But a fifth person committed the crime, the truth being revealed through the testimony of a blind cripple. On Thursday, "The Greatest Love" will be presented. Another love story, the dominant feature of the picture, and the rise of the little immigrant family from poverty to power in the new land of opportunity, later followed by tragedy and disillusionment, constitutes a cross section of life which might be met just about any corner of a big city.

"Hearts of the West" At The Movies

The feature at The Movie Theatre this Sunday will be the new Fox "Hearts of the West," a thrilling five reel western starring William Farnum. The picture will also be presented at other theatres in the week with much success.

featured at The Comet Theatre this Sunday. Mix has the role of a Texas cowboy. What scenes, deaths, murders, bank robberies, to say nothing of frequent gun play and hair raising, so that it is a stampede of wild horses, he manages to have plenty to do.

Also, "The Witching Hour" will be featured next Thursday. The story deals with a young man who has an inherited fear of cats eye jewelry and kills a man when goaded with his weakness. Mental suggestion later enters into the story and through the force of mental power the young man is saved from death. There is a strange love interest in the story which makes the picture not easily forgotten.

"In Old Kentucky" At Criterion Sunday

The scenes told in the great American classic, "In Old Kentucky," are realistically produced in the monster photo play by that name, which will be shown at the Criterion Theatre this Sunday. Among the thrilling scenes are: A mountain girl on horseback leaps broken bridge over yawning chasm to save man threatened by dynamite blast; risks life in burning barn to save three-year-old racer; the great Kentucky handicap race in sensational finish; venturist of moonshiner's friend, wrongfully accused; feudist battles over rights with Revenue Agents and gun fight with Revenue Agents; the early days of the Blue Grass State. Wonderful Love story underlies the thrilling plot.

"The Jucklins," "The Prince Chap" Pandemonium Features

George Melford's "The Jucklins" will be presented at the Pandemonium Theatre this Sunday and Monday. He saw another claim the love that he knew belonged to him. Because those who could not understand had found the girl with "duty." But this is a tale of the Blue Ridge Mountains—the brave old days of the pioneer. And this "Whiting" schoolmaster's battle went to the bush.

"The Prince Chap" will be presented on Tuesday and Wednesday. This is a William DeMille's production, and is the story of William Peyton, sculptor. In love with a beautiful woman, he leaves her in seek fame as a sculptor. Through the death of a model, he becomes the guardian of a baby girl. A misunderstanding causes a break between Peyton and his fiancée. And later Claudia, his wife, grows into a beautiful woman, and he discovers that his heart is torn just as bruised. On Thursday, "The Sagebrusher" and next Friday and Saturday, Norma Talmadge in "The Passion Flower" will be presented.

Turned Over To The Mob

Of the many phases to the lynching of Roy Hammond at Bowling Green of this State a few days ago, the act that should be the most severely condemned is that of Sheriff Charles Moore. He is the one man that deserves all the condemnation that an indignant community could impose upon an official, who fails to do his duty. He cannot plead that he did not have the power to protect his prisoner, because the facts in the case show absolutely differently. He knew the mob was forming and the purpose for which it was being formed.

The time-worn statement that he was overpowered and his prisoner taken from him and his deputies is "to-mor-row". Nobody with a grain of sense will believe such a story. Of course, he must tell some tale as an excuse for his giveaway of the prisoner to the mob. But, he knows better, and the public knows better, though there be those who have not the moral courage to say so.

Sheriff Moore could not convince an unbiased jury that he did his duty in this case. The facts are these: The sheriff and six deputies arrived to uphold the law, allowed a mob of from five to fifty to come in their presence, in the broad daylight, take possession of their prisoner and hang him to a tree and riddle his body with bullets. During all of this not a shot was fired on the part of the sheriff, nor his deputies in the defense of law and order. Nor was any one hurt or even scratched as a result of the work of the mob, except the victim of their blood lust.

This is a plain case of neglect of duty. If the sheriff was fearful of his own life as his reason for surrendering his prisoner, then he is a coward and is unworthy of the office. If he was courting favor, a mob, then his is a betrayal of the public's trust and should be summarily punished. From office.

Will Governor Hyde Act?

In the two preceding issues of this paper we urged Governor Hyde to include in his special message to the legislature, a paragraph recommending that the enactment of a mob-lynching law in this State.

During the past two or three weeks much has been said about conditions in Georgia, but The Argus has kept his eyes on Missouri, our own State. And while we did condemn the many outrages against the Negroes in the State of Georgia, yet somehow, we had a constant feeling that danger was much nearer our door than that of this feeling.

We have recently done some traveling in the State, and a little study of conditions as we saw them, forced us to the conclusion that danger of mob-violence lurks in the very air in some counties of Missouri.

Lately, however, we did not think that danger would be in its daily work so acute. Suddenly had the ink from our pen dried, begging the Governor to act, are the hanging of Roy Hammond, by a mob at Bowling Green. The acts of the mob last week fully justify our contentions that Governor Hyde should act. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Instinct Or Reason?

True to their "instincts" Senator Harrison and Congressman Johnson, both of course from Mississippi, while their colleagues are busy at Washington helping to put over a constructive program for the benefit of the Nation, are devoting all of their time trying to keep the Negroes down. The news reports are not that both of them have introduced a "Jim-Crow" bill in their respective branches of Congress.

Of course no one will take them seriously. But the thing it does, it is, it gives the lie to the Southern white man to his claim of dealing fairly and justly with the Negro.

It looks to us like such men as Harrison and Johnson act without thinking. Surely such men have no rightful place in the great law-making body of the Nation. So, their actions, like the old proverb, "The dog turneth to his vomit and the sow to her wallow."

"How To Stop Lynching"

Under the above caption, The St. Louis Post-Dispatch, May 4, gives us a "how to stop lynching."

After we read and reread the comment it reminded us of the fable, "Running with the hare and hiding with the hounds."

We confess that it was more than passing notice to us, because we have always looked upon The St. Louis Post-Dispatch as a leader in the fight against mob violence. The comment upon this position it took in this case is just a little more than we can understand.

How To Stop Lynching

Without dodging the issue, but facing the facts, we should say the same and only way to make it hard for the officers of the law who tolerate mob violence, is to make it hard for the officers of the law who tolerate mob violence. Make have no standing before the law. Penalize officers who fail to do their duty by summarily removing from office. Penalize the county who elect such faithless officers with heavy indemnities. Hang a few of the mob leaders because they are murderers.

When "honor done," in a ceremonial or other officers will shoot when they see a mob, and shoot to kill, for bullets fired by an officer into a mob has wonderful persuasive power—See?

The Lynching Inquiry

The investigation into the Bowling Green lynching inquiry is being given the most thorough and complete investigation that has been given in the history of the State. It is to be a full and complete inquiry into the facts of the case, and the responsibility of the officers of the law who tolerated the mob.

dable authorities to bring the Bowling Green mob inquiry to justice. Local authorities, too, seem to be doing their utmost to make amends for the breakdown in respect to the power of justice. There must be full penalty exacted for the crime done to the community and the State.

Letters From The People

INSULTED IN A THEATRE

To The Editor of The Argus:

Dear Sir:

I think the time has come when the colored people of St. Louis should take some action against the theatre.

I attended the theatre last night and saw a performance of the play "The Sign of the Cross."

The play was a very good one, and I enjoyed it very much.

But I was very disappointed to find that the colored people were not allowed to sit in the same part of the theatre as the white people.

I was seated in the balcony, and the white people were seated in the orchestra.

I was very angry to find that the colored people were not allowed to sit in the same part of the theatre as the white people.

HARDING ENDORSES THE NATIONAL URBAN LEAGUE

Special To The Argus

NEW YORK, May 4.—Recognition of the part which the National Urban League has been playing in bringing about better understanding and closer cooperation between the races is expressed in a letter from President Harding which was received by Eugene Kinchloe, Jr., Executive Secretary, at the headquarters of the League, 127 East 37th street, New York.

The letter, which was dated May 4, 1921, is as follows:

President Harding's letter follows:

The White House, Washington

My Dear Mr. Jones:

The National Urban League has, as I understand it, been particularly useful in its contributions toward the solution of the problem of race in the United States. Because it has sought to secure the cooperation of leading people of both races in attacking this problem.

As we suggested in my recent message to Congress, I feel that this is the only way in which we can hope for fullest and most desirable results. The race problem is one that concerns all of us and which we must all join in handling. I shall hope, for and be confident of, your hearty cooperation in every effort in this direction.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) WARREN G. HARDING

A. U. K. AND D. OF A. ENTERS NEW HOME

Organization Purchases Building At Compton And Lucas Avenues And Will Enter This Sunday, May 8.

The greatest day in the history of the Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa will dawn upon them on the evening of May 8th when they enter their new home recently purchased, on the Northwest corner of Compton and Lucas Aves. This new uplifting organization, although in its infancy, can boast of having made wonderful progress and today it stands second to none along all fraternal lines. Just thirteen years ago the Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa began this great movement in a small desk room, in St. Louis, and today its branches are stretched from shore to shore and its banner, "Excellence", is waving in nearly all states of this great country. In New York, the empire state, this organization, under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Kimbrough, the State Grand Queen, so ably assisted by Mrs. Minnie E. Adams, National District Deputy, is doing a wonderful work, and in one night alone, they were successful in organizing five large Councils. Not only in New York are they doing great work, but in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Kansas, Nebraska, California and Connecticut, and in the near future more states will be added.

There is also a Military Department connected with this organization, under the leadership of Major General J. A. Shackelford, which has raised our Uniform Department in the United States, considering its age.

The New Building

The new building purchased by this organization is beautifully located on the North West corner of Compton and Lucas Aves, having two lodge rooms with all modern equipments. The offices of the National Grand Master are well furnished with the latest style of office furniture and as we view the beautiful stream heated halls and Council rooms, are can only stop and turn our eyes towards the heavens and cry in thundering tones, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." Right here we pause and to our minds comes this question, "In whom shall the crown of success be placed? Shall it be placed on the head of the brother who started and fell by the wayside? No. Shall it be placed on the head of the slave who became discouraged and gave up hopes? No. But in thundering tones, first we give thanks to the Almighty God, who is our Guide and Leader in all good and great things, and last but not least, we shall place the Crown of thought, hardships, toil, perseverance and success on the head of the National Grand Master, William Herbert Fields, who is the supporter of this great movement; and his strong force of brave sons and Daughters, of the Negro Race, who held up his arms in guiding the old ship of the Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa on to success. Aside from the many other things, the A. U. K. and D. of A. will offer thanks to the Divine Giver of all good and precious gifts at the Annual Thanksgiving Services throughout the land this year, and special thanks will be offered for the beautiful home now owned by the Order. The A. U. K. and D. of A. whose motto is "Race Equality" is gradually but surely embracing the Union, for the Negro is gradually learning that next to our hold on God, no people have equaled us in keeping this hold; we must civil one another by the hand, and with faith in self, faith in our fellowman, faith in God, while the heights already reached by a favored few, this Order was received and born in the heart of a Negro who saw the needs of his people along certain lines, Racial and Commercial; and the most ardent of the A. U. K. and D. of A. who have placed the ranks and are working to the best interests of the Order. The Grand Master, William Herbert Fields, is working diligently for the Order, with his whole heart in the work, and nothing which tends towards the uplift of his people from a civic standpoint, escapes his eye; for as he says: "We are not free, while that which cries for greater consciousness within. The banished claim of Race denies To us and others of my kind." For so too, the fulfillment of our duties mean hard work and personal sacrifice, but he who lives in the race, this great Fraternal Organization, so called that after all, we are but in accounts to be debited or credited in service, for he has never served who does not know that service means sacrifice.

Melting one group to use the vision to help make the lot of the next generation a little better than this one, inculcating the spirit of brotherhood and trust in one another, inspiring Racial pride in Negro enterprises no matter how humble, realizing that no man is discharged in the great warfare of life, and that only those who fight no more, the A. U. K. and D. of A. grows onward, outlasting those men, and growth and prosperity in the result.

Headquarters of National Grand Master

The National Grand Master has a suite of rooms located in the new building, which will be occupied by him as his private home. These rooms are elaborately furnished with beautiful and modern furniture, electric lights, telephone, and all that goes to make a complete and palatial home for one so deserving as he, and he cordially extends a courteous invitation to all friends to come and view the building, and see the many lines of Racial uplift and progress.

Her closing statement was to stay on their knees to God at the throne of grace. Sister Mary Smith in her usual way carried them away to the spirit and left them sitting in the valley of tears. The Bible School and the Y. Y. P. U. work were more than up to the standard. Sunday, The Mission Circle met with Sister Annie Motter. It was well attended and was well served by the house. The Graded Class met with Cordelia May Hill. They report having had a fine meeting. The Motoka class met at the home of Paul Smith. They had a delightful time. Mrs. Rosecoe Dean left the church sick last Sunday morning and was met at home by his father in the same condition, having returned from work. The S. A. C. P. Branch here is meeting off nicely in the Natim-White building. We are expecting great results.
